

WOMEN IN FILM AND TELEVISION ATLANTIC
FEMMES DU LA CINEMA ET LA TELEVISION ATLANTIQUE

2019 WAVE AWARDS

How to nominate remarkable woman in the screen industry for a WAVE Award.

Contact:

Dana Publicover,

Women Making Waves Conference Chair

info@wift-at.com

Erin Christie

Communications Coordinator

erin.wift@gmail.com

The 2018 Wave Award recipients, from left: Janet Hawkwood, Rachel Bower and Terry Greenlaw.
(Photo by: Claire Fraser)

Who should be nominated?

The goal of the WAVE Awards is to acknowledge remarkable individuals who identify as women, working in film, television, or screen-based media for their:

- Contributions
- Accomplishments
- Emerging Talent
- Vision & Leadership
- Dedication
- Outstanding behind-the-scenes support

While there are no specific categories for the WAVE Awards, we welcome you to nominate a woman who you believe to be remarkable and deserving of recognition. The Wave Awards will be presented on Saturday, March 9, 2019 at the Women Making Waves Conference.

Nomination Steps:

The WAVE Awards are open to any woman working in film, television, or screen-based media in any Atlantic province.

While the awards are intended to recognize the accomplishments of women, men and women are encouraged to submit nominations. We do not limit the number of submissions by any one person.

To submit a nomination, please include:

1. A nomination pitch write-up (800 words max.). This document should convincingly detail why your nominee(s) should be recognized by WIFT-AT.

You may want to consider mentioning any volunteer work, awards, achievements, and accomplishments you feel the person should be recognized for.

2. A résumé and/or filmography of the nominee(s).

3. Contact information for both yourself and the nominee(s).

4. One letter of recommendation is required, an additional letter of support is optional, but please submit no more than two letters of support per nomination.

Deadline: All nominations must be emailed to erin.wift@gmail.com by January 25, 2019 at midnight, AST.

Women Making Waves Conference

All WAVE Award recipients will be honoured during the Women Making Waves Conference (WMW) on March 9, 2019.

WMW offers networking events, screenings, panels, and workshops tailored to established industry experts as well as emerging creative talent and interested students.

Please Note:

- All nominations are kept confidential. Only the award recipients will be announced at the 2019 Women Making Waves Conference.
- If you have previously submitted a nomination that was not selected, please consider resubmitting. There is a new selection committee each year.

Previous Award Recipients

- 2018 Janet Hawkwood, Terry Greenlaw and Rachel Bower.
- 2017 Ann Bernier, Christine McLean, Donna Davies.
- 2016 Lara Cassidy, Annette Clarke and Dominique Gusset
- 2015 Catherine Martin, Renee Laprise and Marlene Cahill
- 2014 Barbara Doran, Noreen Golfman and Linda Wood
- 2013 Lisa Rose Snow, Angie Kokic, and Louise Lalonde
- 2012 Jennice Ripley, Sylvia Hamilton, and Jan Miller
- 2011 Jean Smith, Ann Verrall, Cheryl Wagner, and Cat LeBlanc

"The WIFT-AT WAVE Awards celebrate the smart, strong and talented women working in Atlantic Canada's audiovisual industry. The list of winners is a remarkable group of accomplished women and I was truly honoured to be recognized among these names."

- Linda Wood,
2014 WAVE Award Recipient

Deadline:

All nominations must be sent to erin.wift@gmail.com by Friday, January 25, 2019, midnight AST.

Questions about the nomination process?

Contact:

Erin Christie

erin.wift@gmail.com

Communications Coordinator

or

Dana Publicover,

info@wift-at.com

Women Making Waves Conference Chair

Women in Film and Television, Atlantic (WIFT-AT)

1496 Lower Water St. Suite #502

Halifax, NS

B3J 3R5

